Tips for Using Hiroshima University Libraries

To all new students, congratulations on becoming a member of Hiroshima University! This time we will introduce useful bits of knowledge about HU libraries! We hope that you will make good use of the library for your studies and research!

1

Undergraduates can borrow up to 40 books?!

Undergraduates can borrow up to 10 books per library. Graduate students and above can borrow 15 books from each library at a time. So, if you check out the maximum number of books from each of the 4 libraries...

2

You can return books at any HU library?!

You can return books you borrowed from one Hiroshima University Library to another! For example, if you check out a book at Higashi Senda Library, you can return it to Central Library!

3

You can receive books from public libraries?!

Through HU Library's agreement with Hiroshima Prefectural Library, Hiroshima City Library, and Higashi Hiroshima City Library, you can request and pick up books from these libraries at Central Library for free!

4

So many places to study?!

With BIBLA and group study rooms, single study rooms, and desks, you can study in a group or by yourself at our libraries! It's quite crowded during exam periods.

5

You can get academic writing support?!

In the "Writing Center" on Central Library's 1st floor, you can get help with writing reports, theses, and other assignments. They also offer online services, so you don't even have to go to Central Library to use it!

This Month's Antique Book

Sumiyoshi Monogatari (Nara Ehon Muromachi Jidai Monogatari)

Location: Central Library Valuable Materials Room

A 「Nara Ehon」 is a type of illustrated book created chiefly from the end of the Muromachi period to mid Edo period. There are many of these books in Hiroshima University's holdings.

One of these books is 「Sumiyoshi Monogatari」, famous for its depiction of an evil stepmother who bullies her stepchild. It is considered one of Japan's "Cinderella" stories, a common archetype in ancient folktales.

Take a look and enjoy the beautiful illustrations depicting the love story of Himegimi and a 4th ranked major general, which is violently thwarted by her cruel stepmother.

You can browse this book in the digital archive!→
